At the rear of the block, and on the ground floor, this apartment is a great investment proposition as well as being a realistically priced first home or downsizer, suitable for couples, singles or small families. Stylishly presented, the apartment is sunny and bright and includes an open living room with servery from the modern kitchen, which has a tiled splashback, a smooth electric cooktop, and ample cupboards and drawers. Both bedrooms have built-in wardrobes, and the bathroom has space for a washing machine. The property comes with an undercover car space. The location is near primary schools, buses, recreation and reserves, and it is close to Glenhuntly Road trams, trains and shops; easily accessing Monash University (Caulfield). What more could you want!
