SOLD by Miles Real Estate. The quiet, rear north-facing corner of a fabulous low-rise block is the exceptionally-private elevated position of this secure two bedroom apartment. Lined with leafy trees and premium Kew properties, Brougham Street is a highly sought-after place to live and this first-floor apartment with a balcony and parking presents an outstanding opportunity, both affordable and manageable, to experience blue-ribbon Kew's immense character, charm and renowned convenience. Impeccably presented with streams of natural light filtering throughout, this attractive home's single-level interior is superbly designed with older-style proportions and fresh modern style the ideal combination for immediate enjoyment. An inviting low-maintenance layout offers an entrance hallway, two impressively-sized bedrooms including built-in robes, a light-laden living room opening to a north-facing treetops balcony, immaculate kitchen and meals area on new timber flooring, a flawless bathroom plus a separate toilet. On title is a car parking space that's undercover while just nearby within a short stroll is the Willsmere Village with its popular cafes and the tranquil Anniversary Trail. Whether buying for the first time, comfortably scaling down or investing where the rewards are best, confidently enter a prestigious property market with this irresistible apartment close to Kew Junction/High Street shopping, city trams, Yarra River parkland, freeway and schools.
