Nestled in serene seclusion, bathed in abundant natural light, and graced with captivating views of Armadale Reserve, this exclusive two-bedroom apartment is a rare find. Offering the added convenience of a covered parking space, it opens the door to a prime Armadale location. Situated adjacent to the lush parklands and serving as a gateway to High Street's charming cafes and boutiques, Malvern Central, delectable restaurants, Armadale station, and the High Street and Wattle Tree Road trams, this apartment boasts exceptional accessibility to all the amenities you desire. Recently adorned with a fresh coat of paint, the apartment exudes peace and spaciousness. The north-facing living room extends onto a private balcony, while the separate kitchen is both roomy and equipped with a comfortable dining area. Each of the two double bedrooms, including spacious main bedroom seamlessly incorporates built-in wardrobes. Additional features include a central bathroom with a shower and laundry facilities, along with a separate toilet. This terrific apartment represents a fantastic opportunity within a sought-after, meticulously maintained complex in one of Armadale's most coveted streets.
