Offering direct access to Kananook Creek, Frankston CBD and walking trails through to Frankston Foreshore, a lifestyle of supreme convenience captures the essence of coastal living. Freshly painted and newly carpeted the vast open vistas create an airy ambience while sun-soaked neutrals and a wall of windows define the living and dining zone, before a private balcony offers a quiet retreat for summertime enjoyment. A practical kitchen design ensures eating-in is an option, with wall oven, electric cooktop and ample bench space confirming functionality. Sharing a renovated bathroom with guests, two bedrooms each with built-in robes complete the interior while a separate car space and lockable storage room finalise the on-title features. With a communal swimming pool perfect for days where the beach is too hot, this central address sits within easy walking distance to Bayside Shopping Centre, Frankston Train Station and Long Island Beach and within the Frankston High School Zone.
