Radiant, inviting, and practical, this two bedroom apartment exudes warmth and functionality, featuring a kitchen that is simply irresistible. Offering generous space and convenience, it also comes with its own car space on title. Set at the rear of a quiet, small and well-presented group, the location in a celebrated area of Armadale offers excellent accessibility to High Street's shops and cafes, trams, Armadale Station, parks and Malvern Central. The interior of this apartment is defined by a thoughtful open plan design and timber flooring throughout. The light-filled living and dining area features reverse-cycle heating and air conditioning for year-round comfort, while a coffee terrace offers a cosy retreat. The renovated kitchen steals the spotlight with its beautiful aesthetic, bespoke cabinetry, concealed fridge space, breakfast bar, pantry, stylish fittings, and quality appliances including a dishwasher. Cooking in this space will always be a pleasure. The generous main double bedroom integrates plentiful storage with built-in robes and drawers, while the second double bedroom features built-in robes. A central bathroom conveniently integrates laundry facilities. This lifestyle apartment is completed by its enviable location that literally puts the best of Armadale, Malvern and South Yarra at your fingertips.
