Unleash your creativity with this Art Deco apartment, set within in a boutique block building of only 10 and featuring the added benefit of a lock-up garage. Once you step through the leadlight door, you'll be immediately struck by the limitless potential of the spacious interior, a blank canvas brimming with possibilities for a captivating contemporary makeover and redesign. Bathed in sunlight, the north-facing living room is characterised by a unique curved wall that radiates a distinct character. A separate dining room eagerly awaits your personal touch, accompanied by a functional kitchen and meals area ready to be transformed into a gourmet haven. The two bedrooms share a bathroom with shower-over-the-bath. Additional highlights enhancing the appeal are a separate laundry room with rear access, heater, high ceilings graced with roses, and polished floorboards. This is an ideal opportunity to revamp, reimagine, and take on a special project that can become your unique creation. The location offers an array of local shops and restaurants just a stone's throw away, along with easy access to city-bound trams, Carlisle Street, Caulfield Park and Junction, Malvern Central, and Glenferrie Road.
