Located within the central hub of Williamstown and offering the perfect blend of lifestyle and convenience, this wonderful property boasts more than just a great location. With its light filled North-facing living spaces and open plan design, this is a great entry-level opportunity not to be missed. Benefit from the well maintained and updated kitchen with freestanding cooktop and plenty of storage space, while the generous sized bedroom with access to the ensuite bathroom ensures a convenient layout. The addition of off-street parking and split system heating/cooling provide another layer of appeal to this property that's ready to enjoy by an owner occupier or investor. Be within minutes' walk to North Williamstown train station, and central proximately to cafes, restaurants, Douglas Parade and Ferguson Street shopping and the beautiful beaches that Williamstown has to offer.
