Staring renovated style and mountain views, this modernised home is the perfect match for family life with dual living zones and covered alfresco entertaining delivering an incredible atmosphere all year round. Enjoying a gently elevated position in the Regency Park Estate, the home's contemporary interior flaunts fashionable flooring throughout with the entry foyer opening onto a large formal lounge room. Whether you're entertaining or relishing everyday family life, the open plan dining and family room provides plenty of space and is accompanied by a stunning kitchen containing sleek benches, 900mm oven/gas stove, DeLonghi dishwasher, soft close drawers and double sinks where you can wash up and look out to the Dandenong Ranges. Spilling out to the north, sliding doors extend onto a covered alfresco entertaining deck with steps leading out to the level, child-friendly backyard with vegetable patch. The new flooring continues its cohesive flow through to the four robed bedrooms, with the master bedroom equipped with built-in-robos plus a newly completed ensuite, accompanied by a family bathroom and separate toilet. Completing this enticing home you'll find a laundry, walk-in linen press, split system heating/air conditioning, LED downlights, garden shed plus a double carport. Placed only moments from Regency Park Primary, Wantirna College, Wantirna Mall, Knox Private Hospital, buses and playgrounds, near Westfield Knox Shopping Centre and EastLink Freeway.
