Looking for something a little different? A truly unique property located in one of Victoria's best-kept secrets, Peterborough. This super property has incredible views to the north overlooking the Curdies River and adjoining farmland. Sit back on the deck and enjoy the views. Inside the property offers open plan kitchen living and dining room with superb cathedral ceilings, feature timber staircase and polished concrete floors. Downstairs there is one bedroom, a central bathroom, two separate toilets and a large laundry. Upstairs there is two bedrooms (open space). Outside there is a shower for when you return from the beach and an excellent yard for a cricket match over Christmas. Peterborough is really one of our best kept secrets, a seaside hamlet only 2 hours 45 minutes from Melbourne and 40 minutes from the provincial town of Warrnambool. Peterborough has some of the best fishing, diving, surfing and walking tracks to be found along with the ability to discover the Hinterlands with ease.
