Moments from the CBD and Charles Street Café strip, 10 Balfour Street is an address of distinction. Set within Launceston's most tightly held pocket with the most stunning views over the CBD and down the Tamar River, this remarkable property features an array of oversized rooms – creating space and style. Gorgeous bay windows, original fret work and mantles feature throughout with the north facing living/kitchen and dining space full of natural light, year 'round. St Georges Square Park, local Butcher and a multitude of Café options are all on your doorstep - this location is as good as it gets. The large garage/workshop underneath offers ample storage with space for vehicles and projects. This home is your chance to enjoy all the things that City fringe living has to offer.
