A top-to-bottom redesign by MORA architects has transformed a simple seaside cottage into a home of understated elegance and beauty; its combined with a polished, coastal style and seamless indoor/outdoor flow. Showcasing an inspired palette of thoughtfully restrained forms, textures and hues, the home weaves together the past and present with an array of custom finishes and premium quality appointments. The setting simply couldn't be better its nestled in one of the areas most sought-after pockets, just a few steps from the foreshore offering expansive views back towards the Northern Beaches and a stroll to waterfront cafes, shops and ferry service.* Simple and elegant; sleek interiors + effortless indoor/outdoor flow* Full renovation; 2021 interior re-design & landscaping by Alison Jane Rice of Botanical Theatre Studio; and previously by James Frazer of MORA architects* Architectural lighting, designed and supplied by Modular Lighting* Built-in BBQ, expansive bench seating on the stunning hardwood deck* Ducted and zoned air conditioning, electric blinds, sheer curtains concealed architecturally to convey the illusion of continuing height
