Part of the boutique Cherry Blossom estate, life could be as sweet as it sounds at 10 Banksia Court. This address enjoys best of both worlds; a tranquil setting walking distance to Castlemaine Diggings National Park and also within easy reach of Castlemaine's excellent amenities. The generous 871 sqm (approx.) block has a wide frontage and Colorbond rear fencing. Town services are connected bringing you steps closer to realising your dream home. Get set to make your mark on the street and become part of the growth of this special new neighbourhood. The dimensions of the block are fit for a range of standard plans or will accommodate your bespoke design. Perhaps you will incorporate a pool and a large shed as some of the neighbours have done. Families will appreciate the safe court setting with sealed roads and fresh footpaths for bike rides and walks. Take your loved ones to this gorgeous Campbells Creek setting where your enviable lifestyle will be characterised by family bushwalks, pursuing weekly markets and engaging with a vibrant friendly community where art, food and rich history is celebrated.
