This charming home, nestled in the heart of Beerwah offers a desirable combination of affordability, comfort, and value. Located in a quiet cul-de-sac and views of the Glass House Mountains, this home offers a peaceful place to reside. The property's prime location provides convenient access to local schools, the railway station, and nearby shops, all within a short walking distance. Featuring three bedrooms and two living rooms, this home offers flexibility in its layout. The separate living room can also serve as a fourth bedroom if desired. The living room and bedrooms all offer picturesque views of the nearby Glasshouse Mountains, adding to the overall appeal of the property. The bathroom has been beautifully refurbished and includes an amazing shower and deep bath, creating a perfect space for relaxation. The open plan living and dining area is filled with natural light, creating a welcoming atmosphere. From here, you can access the enviable covered outdoor entertainment area. The outdoor space is designed and perfect for alfresco dining, entertaining guests, or simply enjoying a peaceful retreat. A spacious covered concrete patio provides abundant room, and the private landscaped backyard adds to the overall ambience. Additionally, the property features a large side access, allowing for convenient storage of additional vehicles such as a shed, boat, or caravan. The 800m² fully fenced block is easy to maintain, thanks to well-established fruit trees and garden beds with installed watering systems. The 3m x 3m lockable shed provides the ample storage space. This practical and low maintenance home presents an excellent opportunity for both buyers and investors alike and is sure to sell quickly. Don't miss out. Organise an inspection today.
