Step into the comfort of this low-set cladded gem in the serene neighborhood of Forrest Beach. Presenting an extensively renovated 3-bedroom home, where two are equipped with built-in wardrobes and air conditioning, ensuring a cool retreat from the summer heat. Comfort extends beyond the bedrooms, with air-conditioned living and dining areas just off the kitchen, ensuring a comfortable atmosphere throughout the home. The heart of the home boasts a superb new kitchen, complete with counter-to-ceiling subway tiles, an abundance of cupboard space, a gas cooktop, and a dishwasher. The expansive bathroom doubles as a convenient laundry nook, tailored for practical living. Recently refreshed with both interior and exterior paint, electrical enhancements including chic light fittings, and an external makeover, this home stands out with undeniable curb appeal. Each detail is meticulously chosen, from the Invisi-Gard screens ensuring your security without compromising on views, to the luxurious Karndean flooring that combines durability with the beauty of natural wood. Protect your vehicles under the dual covered car accommodation, while nature lovers can revel in the tranquility of the rear deck, offering views over the manicured, established gardens and lush lawns. The front deck is a perfect spot to unwind with the afternoon sea breeze. Complete with a full fence and an electric front gate, the property also hosts a delightful assortment of fruit trees, offering a taste of the sweet life with oranges, mangoes, and mandarins. This home is not just move-in ready-it's an experience waiting to be lived. This move-in-ready residence has been lovingly cared for, with the current owner successfully Airbnb'ing the property over the past year, providing excellent returns and allowing for travel. Inside, the home's color palette is aesthetically soothing, while outside, the gardens and water feature create a peaceful, serene oasis that beckons relaxation. Situated just 500m from the water's edge and close to all local amenities, this home offers both convenience and a tranquil coastal lifestyle. Embrace the opportunity to own a slice of paradise where all the hard work has been done for you. Welcome to your new haven at 10 Cedar Street.
