On offer is this wonderful two-story townhouse in the heart of Bluestone, Mount Barker situated in a picturesque setting facing a coveted park, making it an ideal retreat for those seeking tranquility and natural beauty right at your doorstep. The low-maintenance lifestyle it provides is perfect for busy families or individuals looking to enjoy their home without the hassle of extensive upkeep. With three bedrooms, two bathrooms and three toilets, there's plenty of space for comfortable living. The open-plan design of the lounge, kitchen and dining areas creates a seamless flow and a great space for entertaining or relaxing with family and friends. The beautifully appointed family kitchen is sure to inspire culinary creativity, while the European laundry adds a touch of convenience to daily chores. The internal atrium brings a touch of nature indoors, providing a peaceful oasis within the home. The inclusion of reverse cycle ducted air conditioning and ceiling fans ensures that you'll stay comfortable year-round, while the two-car secure garage offers convenience and peace of mind for parking and storage. The location of this townhouse is truly unbeatable, with easy access to fantastic schools, public transport options, and a nearby shopping centre for all your daily needs. This home truly offers the best of both worlds - a peaceful retreat in a beautiful setting, while still being close to all the amenities and conveniences that modern life demands. Don't miss out on the opportunity to make this wonderful family home your own.
