Welcome to a meticulously renovated and thoughtfully extended freestanding Hawthorn brick Victorian, nestled on a tranquil residential street in Northcote, offering the convenience of off-street parking and the charm of timeless elegance. Full of natural light with soaring ceilings and a traditional arched side hallway featuring two spacious bedrooms both with built in robes and the main with a luxurious ensuite, central bathroom/laundry and a sizeable home office with quality custom built shelving and built in desk. Thoughtfully designed, the rear extension includes an entertainers' kitchen, dining and spacious living area linking to the undercover alfresco deck area and tranquil, leafy garden. Well-equipped the kitchen includes quality Miele appliances including induction stovetop, freestanding island bench with stone benchtops and plenty of storage. Additional features include solar panels, double glazed windows, hydronic heating, reverse cycle heating and cooling, and storage. Enjoy the best of Northcote close to High Street shops and eateries, trams, trains, Northcote Plaza, All Nations Park, and local schools.
