Nestled at one of West Hobart's most popular streets, just several minutes' walking distance to Hobart's CBD, this late 1960's low maintenance home is now available to buy. Boasting loads of sunshine due to its Northerly aspect, the warm, inviting ambience is welcoming. Comprising three bedrooms, master with wall to wall built in robe, spacious open plan living, including kitchen, dining and lounge combined, bathroom with tub and free standing shower, separate laundry/utility room as well as separate loo. Polished Tas Oak boards throughout the majority of the home combined with neutral decor tones allow just about any furniture configuration and palette to blend in perfectly. Undercover parking off street, as well as two additional parks in tandem is a scarce offering in West Hobart providing a sense of convenience as well as security for your vehicles, trailers and bikes. There is a surprising level of storage under house, so all those extra items that aren't required day to day can be put away until needed. The relative level access is ideal for those wanting to avoid too many stairs or for those with mobility considerations. This unsurpassed location within such a vibrant and well regarded community hub makes this property highly desirable for couples, young families, retirees and investors alike.
