If you're looking for a home that's unlike any others on the market, this Modernist-style classic, designed by renowned architect, the late Alistair Knox, is sure to impress. Superbly situated in a blue chip Caulfield North location on a sizeable 739m²* allotment, this blissfully tranquil 70's built single level sanctuary, cherished by one family for over 50 years, has been thoughtfully updated to create an oasis of contemporary style, while still successfully retaining its original authenticity. Where a captivating blend of timber lined walls, slanted ceilings, clerestory lighting & exposed brick walls combine seamlessly with the generous proportions, brilliant natural light & stunning green aspect featured throughout, to create an overall flawless display of family friendly living & entertaining. A wide entrance hallway with engineered parquet tiled floors welcomes you on arrival & delivers an expansive living room with gas fireplace highlighted by a wall of full height windows & doors with external timber shutters opening out to a picturesque front garden setting. While an impressively sized dining room with gorgeous garden outlook sets the scene for lavish entertaining. Adding to the allure is a newly updated gourmet marble topped kitchen with a suite of high end appliances (including 2 x Ilve ovens & 2 x dishwashers), a large walk-in pantry & an abundance of storage all centred around a custom built meals area table that caters perfectly to relaxed family living & enjoying access to a vast paved alfresco area with established garden surrounds & good sized rear garden. Away from the living zones a main bedroom with original feature mud wall, dressing room & stylish ensuite & two additional bedrooms with built-in robes served by a superb central bathroom all enjoy lush garden views. Other features include hydronic heating, split system heating/cooling, substantial storage throughout, video intercom entry, alarm, double auto garage & irrigation. Ideally located in one of Caulfield North's most coveted pockets, close to shops, elite schools, parklands & transport. *Approximate Title Dimensions.
