Nestled in a serene and vibrant location within George Town, 10 Illusion Way offers a unique chance to indulge in modern luxury living. Situated among a cluster of newly constructed residences. Wake up each day to the captivating panoramas of the Tamar River and Low Head, just a brief 5-minute stroll away from renowned beaches. This architectural gem features four generously proportioned bedrooms, meticulously designed to cater to your family's every need. The master suite is a haven in itself, boasting a spacious walk-in wardrobe and an opulent en-suite bathroom. Park your vehicles with ease in the attached two-car garage, seamlessly connected to the main dwelling. Every corner of this residence exudes meticulous craftsmanship, with exceptional finishes adorning the interior spaces, effortlessly blending with the natural surroundings. Revel in the meticulously landscaped garden, a perfect retreat for gardening enthusiasts, complete with a practical garden shed for your tools and equipment. George Town's strategic positioning as a burgeoning growth corridor makes it an enticing investment destination. With significant industrial and tourism projects underway, the region promises not only substantial capital appreciation but also a vibrant community ambiance. The property's frontage presents potential for additional development, subject to council approvals, adding further value to this exceptional offering. Beyond just a residence, this property represents the epitome of modern living, seamlessly blending luxurious comforts with natural beauty.
