Dressed with a timeless character moments from Preston's buzzing heart, this three-bedroom clinker brick beauty ticks all the boxes for the value-chasing buyer. Offering a current-day picture of comfort with loads of natural light and polished timber floorboards throughout, this immediately enjoyable single-level home represents an excellent entry into a premier Preston pocket for the astute investor or young family eager to establish their roots for years to come. The prospect of enhancing the interior with a modern touch will also inspire creative types looking to make their mark in a five-star setting. Three spacious bedrooms coupled with a light-filled living room and separate retreat delivers family-sized comfort and flexibility, while stainless steel appliances add modern quality to the bright kitchen. Featuring a fully-tiled main bathroom, high ceilings, separate laundry and two car spaces, embark on an exciting new chapter within short walking distance of Gower Street Kindergarten, Plenty Road trams and cafes and parks and only moments away from Northland Shopping Centre, Preston train station, Preston Library, schools and the High Street dining strip.
