Fantastic family home in a great location - You will be surprised by the size of this neat and tidy home once you enter. The home offers four bedrooms, two of which have built in robes, with air conditioning in the master. The fourth bedroom has been used as a nursery/office. The kitchen provides good cupboard space plus pantry and electric stove. A nice open flow into the dining area makes for ease of entertaining, or mixing with the family whilst preparing meals. The dining/kitchen area is also air conditioned. The home has a great size back yard, single lock up garage and separate laundry. There is a good size entertaining area which is covered, a garden shed and small water tanks to help with watering the garden. Located within walking distance to most facilities including the local shopping Centre which is only some meter's away, along with Morayfield Shopping Centre, local schools, doctors surgery and train station all easily accessible.
