Auction Saturday 2nd of March Onsite at 6pm. Welcome to this fantastic home, an ideal choice for every buyer. First-time home buyers will relish the opportunity to reside in Strathpine and add significant value to this property. Investors, take note – with the high demand for rentals in Strathpine, tenants can move in promptly, ensuring a swift return on your investment. Downsizers, you won't compromise on land size with this appealing option while enjoying a smaller home inside. Nestled on a generous 954m² block, (approximately) this is a rare opportunity. The residence boasts three well-proportioned bedrooms, a well maintained main bathroom, and a combined lounge and dining area. The built-in garage, cleverly repurposed as a rumpus room, provides additional space. Side access is a valuable feature, and this home goes above and beyond with a spacious two-vehicle garage. Families will appreciate the proximity to Strathpine West State School, just a short walk away, and the expansive Frahm Park close by – making this an ideal home for those with children. Convenient public transport is a mere 5-minute walk to local bus lines, with the train station a mere 2 kilometres away. (approximately) Strathpine is currently experiencing substantial growth in both property values and rental demand. Seize the opportunity to capitalize on this trend by making this property a priority on your list.
