This charming home is situated only 45 minutes south of Hobart. Representing great value in today's market. This home is positioned at the rear of the property in a sunny location taking in glorious views from the surrounding area through the many windows. The home boasts a good sized living/dining area and is kept warm year-round with an ambient wood heater. The original kitchen albeit is very functional and has a pleasant view over the garden and coupled with a separate dining area complete with an original ceiling rose. There are 3 spacious bedrooms again all with original ceiling details and one of which features its own sunroom. The bathroom is central to the bedrooms and living areas. The property also has the added benefits of many out buildings this includes an outside toilet and laundry, carport and a large secured timber shed at the bottom of the property with concrete floor. There are many established fruit trees surrounding the home and ample of vegetable growing area. This home is within walking distance to Geeveston town centre, which has so much to offer.
