New To Market

In the sought after seaside locale of Windang, this spacious family home is sure to win your heart! On a neatly landscaped 551sqm (approx.) corner block, this two storey brick and tile home provides a lot of value for money! From the front porch, step into the tiled entrance foyer, with the large formal living space and dining room providing the perfect family entertaining space. The kitchen has updated appliances and is in original order. The second living area flows via a sliding door onto the large paved private patio, perfect for the post beach BBQ! The side yard has gated vehicular access to the street, with plenty of sun and space for a pool, extra vehicle parking or a stunning garden! Upstairs you'll find four bedrooms, two full bathrooms, a cosy kids play space and plus a study, the ideal work from home "zoom room"! The master has a his and hers walk in wardrobe and ensuite, and enjoys the perfect north facing aspect, awash with natural light. Ideally situated on the Windang peninsula, with the beach at the end of the street to your east, and the lake a stone's throw to the west, this home is a solid start with a beautiful future. Your earliest inspection is encouraged.
