This home has been renovated throughout, and by the time you view there will be other additions made for you to enjoy. And it is truly beautiful, a beautiful home for you to enjoy with a blank canvas for a front yard and back yard to stamp your own landscaping ideas. Open your front door. Follow the beautiful timber floorboards throughout your home and marvel at the precise painting and renovations throughout. It's just beautiful. This home is huge and is a very versatile floor plan indeed. We have marked a room to the side of your kitchen as a dining room fourth bedroom, and how brilliant would this be as a study, or a room to keep an eye on the kids?! A huge playroom you can close off when friends come?! Love, love, love the huge lounge room at the northern wing of your home, and its outlook over the alfresco and trees beyond. The alfresco is a gabled all weather entertainment area, accessed from the family room and lounge room, which wraps around it. Love it! Lots of bench space in the kitchen which overlooks the alfresco area and a very large walk-in pantry for you to enjoy. The bathroom and the ensuite will leave you speechless, as it did for me. Both bathrooms are elegant, stunning and so stylish. In fact, this home has lots of inclusions that you will marvel at when you view. Enjoy the extra parking this home offers, and the double garage with direct access to your home through an internal door. We have very motivated vendors who are keen to sell to you and your family. See you at the open!
