This residential duplex sounds like a tranquil retreat nestled in nature. Let's break down its key features: Situated in a new subdivision within a leafy bush setting, the property offers tranquility and natural beauty. Its proximity to the new Burrill Lake Bridge enhances accessibility and convenience. The duplex boasts three bedrooms, each equipped with built-in and walk-in robes, providing ample storage space. The light-filled kitchen/dining area offers a welcoming ambiance for family gatherings or entertaining guests. Reverse-cycle air conditioning ensures year-round comfort, allowing residents to adjust the climate according to their preferences. Both main and ensuite bathrooms offers the property convenience and privacy for residents and guests alike. An internal laundry with external access to the clothesline adds convenience to daily chores. A single auto lock-up garage with internal access ensures secure parking and easy entry to the property. The fully fenced and tiered backyard, complemented by an alfresco area, offers a private retreat for outdoor relaxation and enjoyment. Overall, this residential duplex presents an ideal blend of modern comforts and natural tranquility, making it a desirable option for those seeking a peaceful yet convenient lifestyle. With just a five-minute drive to Ulladulla, residents can enjoy the convenience of nearby amenities and services while still relishing the serenity of their surroundings.
