Impeccably maintained and full of charm, this three-bedroom classic brick home enjoys a prized position in one of Seaford's most desirable family pockets. Situated only 450m from the village and perched upon a substantial 678m² approx., this timeless beauty offers an enticing canvas for renovation and expansion, the foundation for your dream beachside sanctuary, or an attractive prospect for those seeking to develop in this premier central location (STCA.) Inside greets you with a wide entrance hall, leading you to discover a light filled comfortable lounge and dining room, while the separate immaculate kitchen with meals overlooks the backyard, making it easy to watch the kids play. There's an original neat family bathroom with a separate shower and bath, three spacious bedrooms (2-BIR), large laundry with toilet and ample hallway storage, while adding to the appeal is a double carport behind secure gates, powered workshop and garden shed. The lifestyle afforded by this exciting opportunity is unbeatable; enjoy daily swims in the pristine waters and strolls along the sand, indulge in a spot of fishing at the iconic pier, all while savouring in delectable gelato, tapas and fine coffee at your doorstep. Seaford Primary School, supermarkets, sports reserves and the train station are all conveniently close, along with the stunning wetlands and easy freeway access. All enquiries must include a contact number. For more information, please contact James French on 0434 955 657.
