Elevated outlook in this lovely 4 bedroom 2 bathroom plus study family home with plenty of parking and drive through access to the rear. As you step inside you are greeted with porcelain tiles throughout the main living areas and the separate study with light and bright fresh neutral paint throughout. The master bedroom is carpeted with a walk-in robe, tinted windows and ensuite. The open plan kitchen/family/meals room boasts soaring ceilings and a well serviced kitchen with stainless steel appliances including gas hotplates, rangehood, underbench oven and dishwasher. Plenty of bench and cupboard space includes overhead cupboards, generous fridge recess and island bench overlooking the family and meals rooms with a cosy wood fire. The minor bedrooms are all carpeted with robes to the rear with bathroom and laundry. The outdoor entertaining area is off the family room with an approx. 6mtr x 12mtr gabled patio with enough space for the biggest of family gatherings and leads out to a lawned area with easy care raised garden beds and handy garden shed. Other great features include ducted evaporative air conditioning, skirting boards throughout, two tiered lawned area to the front on an elevated 510sqm block with easy care gardens, decking to the front to enjoy the morning sun, plenty of parking in a quiet street with drive through access to the rear through double gates. All this in walking distance to Beelihar primary school, Beelihar park, community centre, shopping and transport links.
