Nestled just 300 meters from the local Lutheran School, this meticulously maintained home offers a blend of convenience and comfort. Ideal for singles, small families, or as an investment property in a high-demand rental market, its recent renovations and low-maintenance yard make it a standout choice. Step inside to find a spacious open-plan living area with polished Jarrah floorboards, complemented by stylish downlights and a wall-mounted reverse cycle air conditioner in the lounge. The renovated kitchen boasts modern amenities, while the separate laundry adds convenience with external access. Three generously sized bedrooms, each with mirrored built-in robes, ensure ample space for residents or tenants. Outside, a stratco pergola provides the perfect spot for entertaining, while large concrete slabs and a double garage offer practicality. With its attractive price tag and value-packed features, this property won't last long. Don't miss out-schedule a viewing with Elaine today or view the visual video on the website for a closer look.
