

10 Periwinkle Way, Point Cook, Vic 3030

Sold House

Tuesday, 9 April 2024

10 Periwinkle Way, Point Cook, Vic 3030

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 544 m2

Type: House

Chris Jarvis

0393959999

$905,500

Showcasing the absolute best in single level excellence is this stunning family home! This property has a versatile floorplan with a vivid use of space, quality finishes, offering the very best of an indoor and outdoor family experience, all just a stone throw away from Alamanda K-9 College, parks and other amenities. This timeless floorplan offers spacious formal lounge, generous sized kids retreat, and most notably, a well equipped kitchen, dining and family room, that basks in natural light all day long, overlooking the outdoor alfresco entertaining area. The well maintained backyard with established surroundings, offers plenty of space for the kids and all year round family gatherings. Kitchen is well furnished with stone benchtops, glass splashback, an abundance of cooking space, 900mm stainless steel appliances and an expansive pantry. The striking master bedroom offers an exclusive en-suite bathroom with dual vanities, oversized shower and spacious walk in robe. Remaining bedrooms are all generous in size, boast natural light, feature built in robes and are all serviced by the stylish central bathroom. Additionally the home features high ceilings, ducted heating, evaporative cooling and double car garage with internal access. Magnificently built with attention to detail, location is key with this beautiful home, offering fantastic features and facilities, which include spa, gymnasium, swimming pool, tennis courts, function centre, indoor children's playground and a residents only recreational and leisure centre at 'Club Alamanda'. Moreover within walking distance to park lands, moments from Alamanda K-9 College and Soho Village shops. A true family entertainer, with a versatile floorplan, that's spacious inside and out, offering an experience that is unforgettable.