Discover timeless elegance in Bairnsdale's coveted downtown location with this classic brick home. Once a grand residence, it boasts original features such as higher ceilings, intricate cornices, and classic light fittings, echoing the charm of a bygone era. A restoration enthusiast's dream, this property presents an opportunity to breathe new life into its historic bones. While it requires attention to restore it to its former glory, the potential is endless. Situated in a highly sought-after location, this home offers unparalleled convenience. Within walking distance, the Mitchell River Walking track, and with local shops and schools easily accessible, it ensures that daily essentials and educational facilities are close at hand. The house, featuring three bedrooms, one bathroom, formal dining room and generous living room with a feature fireplace, embodies a classic layout. With an additional second toilet, it caters to practicality. The potential for customization and modernization is evident, providing a canvas for personalization based on individual preferences. This is not just a home; it's a chance to own a piece of Bairnsdale's history and shape its future. Contact King & Heath First National today to explore the potential of this charming property, embark on a journey of restoration, and be part of preserving the architectural heritage of the Bairnsdale's downtown precinct.
