Builders, developers and investors, take a close look at this magnificent opportunity with the potential to redevelop into a multi-unit site (subject to council approval) with a rare 834m²(approximately) on offer in one of Craigieburn's most convenient locations. Whether you're a developer looking to utilize its prime position within walking distance to the Craigieburn Train Station and Craigieburn Plaza for your next development (STCA) an investor looking to add to your portfolio or your looking for a home that's close to everything, this is an outstanding property providing endless opportunities. The current dwelling is in fantastic original condition and includes 3 light filled bedrooms serviced by a main bathroom, kitchen/meals area with spacious separate living area, double car garage at the rear and a massive backyard. With an array of options and an impressive location, be sure to inspect quickly as opportunities like this don't come around often!
