Located in a quiet culdesac, close to the picturesque Moana Beach, schools, shops plus public transport this home has a lot to offer. There are built in robes to all three bedrooms and ceiling fans plus book cases to the third making it ideal as a home office. The main living room is spacious with bay windows overlooking the front garden, there a roller shutters for security and a gas heater and ceiling fan for comfort, the dining room is adjacent. The kitchen is light and bright and there is plenty of bench and cupboard space, including a full length pantry. For cooking you have a gas cooktop and electric oven. There is also a tiled casual meals area opposite with a ceiling fan. The bathroom is a three way configuration with separate toilet for privacy. This home has a dedicated laundry that also opens to a very generous fully enclosed sunroom providing a great additional living room that is also accessible from the casual meals area. Enjoy the tidy garden that includes a garden shed and gazebo. Other features of this property include a single garage under the main roof with internal access and electric roller door, ducted reverse cycle air-conditioning. Some small pets may be considered on application.
