A sight to behold that seemingly stretches on forever, a 964 sq. metre level allotment with unrivalled potential highlights the rare opportunity presented by this classic timber home. Be quick and bring your best to the vast long-held setting of this charming mid-century residence that features an extra-deep, east-facing rear garden that's positively overflowing with manicured beds, fruit trees, lawn and endless inspiration. Attractive from every perspective, this pristine original home with split-system heating/cooling and solar electricity is meticulously-maintained and presented in comfortable order throughout a timeless single-level interior. Large proportions and natural light are a feature with the layout offering 2 sizable bedrooms with built-in robes, a formal dining room (possible third bedroom), spacious living room, sky-lit kitchen with a stainless-steel stove, modern central bathroom, laundry and a flexible rear family/meals sunroom. Prepare to be blown away by the magnitude of the enormous backyard with its undercover deck, remote-control garage and numerous outbuildings that's perfect as is for kids to play, pets to roam, teddy bears to picnic and parents to plan something special for the future. Immediately inviting, this enormous property offers remarkable scope for a renovation/extension, substantial new family residence or a stunning townhouse redevelopment (STCA). The quiet location is absolutely outstanding for a convenient lifestyle close to Rayner Reserve, Westbreen Creek trails, Devon Road village, Pascoe Vale shopping, train stations, a selection of schools and CityLink access to the city and airport.
