This tri level beach home is solid and as a rock and has some terrific ocean views to North Solitary Island. The north facing aspect invites plenty of sunshine and cooling breezes. All three levels are connected via a central internal staircase. The mid-level includes a full wrap around veranda. This level accommodates two living areas and master bedroom with walk in robe plus the main bathroom with separate w.c. The galley kitchen with gas cooking adjoins both living areas. The top level with polished baltic pine floors incorporates two more bedrooms. There is also a bathroom and another living area on this level which opens onto a balcony and great views. The ground level incorporates a double garage plus studio room with bathroom. The rear yard has a garden shed and plenty of room for other activities. This property is located close to the beach, golf course, new sporting complex, schools and the Woolgoolga CBD so make sure you check it out.
