

10 Salinas Street, Sanctuary Point, NSW 2540

Sold House

Wednesday, 23 August 2023

10 Salinas Street, Sanctuary Point, NSW 2540

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 669 m2

Type: House

Helena Daniels
0432823266

Ben Collinson
0422855199

$695,000

Presenting a wonderful 3-bedroom home in Sanctuary Point, this property offers a fantastic living experience close to the white sandy beaches of Jervis Bay. With a scenic outlook onto the Council Reserve, this property's location provides a beautiful view, giving you a sense of tranquility and connection with nature. The spacious open-plan living area which flows onto the kitchen is ideal for creating a warm and inviting atmosphere for family gatherings and entertaining friends. An extended dining area with a view is another desirable feature, offering an enjoyable dining experience with natural surroundings and timber flooring. The bathroom has been renovated and provides a modern and comfortable space. The convenience of a large lock-up garage and additional storage shed, offers ample space for parking vehicles and extra storage options. The alfresco area adds extra charm to the property, allowing enjoyment of the outdoors in a sheltered and comfortable setting, also featuring views of the reserve. On entering this home, it is evident that it has been well-cared for and is aesthetically appealing, making it move-in ready for potential buyers or tenants. With a short 10-minute drive to shopping centers and the white sandy beaches of Jervis Bay, this property offers both the convenience of nearby amenities and the allure of the coastline. Overall, this property offers a lovely combination of comfort, convenience, and natural beauty. Call today to arrange an inspection, or come along to one of our open homes to see for yourself!