If you are looking for a very affordable country retreat in a very quiet town where you can enjoy bushwalking and clean mountain air - be sure to put 10 Schell street Rossarden on your list. This Miner's Cottage style home features 2 generous bedrooms, a good size living area kitchen/dining with a large modern wood heater, a second living space which is perfect for the kids, and a combined bathroom and laundry, all of which have been recently painted, and carpeted. Outside, in the fully enclosed yard, you will find sheds for the garden tools and wood, and a covered rear entertaining area perfect for barbecues, complete with breath-taking views of Stacks Bluff. Rossarden is a small rural community situated 19 km from the facilities of Avoca in Tasmania's picturesque Fingal Valley and just 1 hour drive to Launceston. It boasts great walking tracks with access to Stacks Bluff. For more detailed information on this rural gem please contact Wayne or Bec.
