Introducing this exquisite two-storey, four-bedroom plus study residence, an idyllic family haven nestled in a sought-after location. Boasting two living areas and two bathrooms, this pristine home offers a perfect blend of functionality and luxury. The highlight is the stunning master suite, featuring its very own living room and balcony that overlooks lush parkland. With spacious open-plan living on the ground floor and four generously-sized bedrooms on the upper level, this home is designed for comfortable living. The property provides ample parking space with a double garage and a convenient carport. Enjoy warmth and energy efficiency with gas central heating and double-glazed windows throughout. The low-maintenance lawns and gardens are complemented by a chook pen and veggie patches, catering to those with a green thumb. Perfectly situated next to a large park, this residence is an ideal choice for the growing family seeking both convenience and tranquility.
