Looking for a coastal family home to accommodate the whole family along with fantastic ocean views, only six years old and built over two levels showcasing a terrific floor plan, this residence will be sure to impress. Walking into this light filled home, the ground level comprises of a contemporary kitchen with stone bench tops, pantry, stainless steel appliances, a 900mm freestanding cooktop/oven that is complimented by the spacious open plan dining and living area that opens onto a private, north patio/garden area. Perfect for entertaining with a lawn and stylish retaining wall and garden. This level also boasts either a third living area / theatre room / home office or 5th bedroom in addition to plenty of under stair storage, powder room and laundry. The upper level consists of 4 generous sized bedrooms, two with BIR's, upstairs main bath, master with twin basin en-suite and WIR while looking at beautiful ocean views as far as the eye can see! There is a large second living area offering a private balcony to enjoy your morning cuppa and take in the fantastic ocean view and tranquilising blue water. Other highlights of this property include gas ducted heating, Jarrah floors, double remote-controlled garage as well as private and low maintenance gardens and a reserve behind the property. Located in a popular position with the luxury of walking to schools, shops, public transport, cafes and restaurants with only a short drive to the beach. Coastal living has never looked so appealing!
