Quietly tucked away in the peaceful coastal village of Walkerville, this block is the perfect place for a weekend escape just moments from the beach. Escape the hustle and bustle of daily life and enjoy all that this beautiful district has to offer – from surfing and fishing to a leisurely stroll along the sandy beaches, the only downside will be having to go home! This block offers endless potential and currently has a weatherboard fishermans shack at the rear, an ideal project to bring back to it's former glory and store your camping gear. The land is relatively clear at the front with some established trees at the rear providing shade in summer. Power is available in the pit at the front of the property if required. This is a great opportunity to invest in a popular beachside town and secure your own little slice of paradise. Get in touch for more information and make this your favourite weekend destination! NOTE: There is no mains sewerage or water available in Walkerville and this block does not have a septic tank currently installed. Those looking to build a house would need to install their own water and septic tanks. Looking to buy, sell or rent in South Gippsland?
