Hidden behind the dense range of shrubs and trees, this magnificent home reveals itself upon entering through the obligatory arbour and white picket fence that greets you. There are numerous picture-perfect zones to relax, enjoy a good book and soak up the ambience of this delightful garden. The two storey, five bedroom Queenslander has been given a fresh breath of life by the current owners who have excelled at restoring this beauty to its former glory and then some!!! From the front door to the beautiful, internal timber staircase with exquisite pendant light fitting, you will be delighted at every turn. This home provides high quality fixtures and fittings throughout the entire property, but functionality and liveability have been well considered for any family. All the hallmarks of a traditional Queenslander are included here, with high ceilings, French doors, ornate cornices and ceiling roses to name a few. With outdoor living a priority in North Queensland, this home delivers in spades, with a fully screened rear deck, two bay iron shed, glistening inground swimming pool, built in sand pit and rear covered patio, all fully fenced to house those important family pets. Fully restored, quality properties are a rare offering in the Burdekin, grab yourself something unique to the market. You're invited to the OPEN HOME this Saturday, 11 May at 1pm....there is so much more to see.
