This outstanding brick family home offers a flexible floorplan, an elevated Easterly aspect and a sense of being amongst the tree tops when enjoying the expansive covered outdoor entertaining deck. A Travertine tiled courtyard behind the lush landscaped garden is an inviting entry to the home and a wonderful place to relax. The main living areas are open plan with soaring raked ceilings, timber floorboards and enviable designer kitchen - all of which flow to the enormous outdoor living space.- Four bedrooms, the main with walk-through, fitted-out wardrobing and modern ensuite. - Two of the bedrooms are currently combined into a singular room though can easily be returned to two (see floorplan)- The internal staircase leads you down to a separate rumpus, plus two more rooms (one of which was originally a kitchenette with all plumbing still in place - ideal if looking for separate accommodation should it be required)- The yard is huge with established gardens, vegie patch and beautiful feature trees- There is a double carport, a second entertaining deck off the lower level and natural gas heating- The property has been beautifully maintained and modernised throughout Located only minutes' walk from Terrigal Primary and Secondary Schools, sporting fields, and only a six minute drive to the sands, restaurants and boutique shops on offer in the heart of Terrigal.
