Behind these beautiful landscaped gardens and quietly peaceful location this impressively appointed residence is only 4 years young delivers first class quality throughout and a perfect setting for family living. From the moment you enter it is clear to see that this is a very special home from the Tasmanian Oak Hardwood flooring to the 2.7 meter ceilings. The master bedroom is positioned perfectly at the front of the home offering a full ensuite and walk in in robe, the remaining two bedrooms share a stunning main bathroom. The open plan living combined with a state of art kitchen offers an abundance of living space with large windows and glass sliding doors which bring in the natural light and picturesque environment. Direct access to the undercover decking, perfect for entertaining family and friends whilst overlooking the private rear garden with fire pit area and beautiful gardens. Storage is not a problem here with a lock up shed at rear, under house storage and a double garage. Wood fire heater, irrigation throughout gardens, solar system, double glazing windows, under floor insulation and much more complete this beautiful home.
