The epitome of elegance and a lifestyle to love, this beautifully maintained freestanding residence provides sundrenched sophistication adorned by ornate period detail, showcasing coveted north facing indoor/outdoor entertaining. A quintessential front porch and white picket fence establishes timeless character, introduced by timber floors, arched hallways and an abundance of natural light throughout open plan living and dining featuring cathedral style ceilings. A central kitchen with stainless steel appliances and endless storage also offers scope to update, superbly positioned opposite bi-fold doors opening to private, northerly alfresco entertaining. Expert accommodation comprises four generous bedrooms, main suite with walk in robe, ensuite and outdoor access. Includes a lavishly updated central bathroom complete with open fireplace, walk in shower and freestanding bath, split system heating/cooling, European laundry and secure off street parking accessed via laneway. Superbly situated mere steps from Hawksburn Village cafes, shops, supermarkets, bars and restaurants, Toorak and Hawksburn station, Toorak Primary School, parks and Chapel Street shopping and entertainment.
