On one of the area's most attractive picket fence-lined streets sits this beautifully maintained Victorian home, offering a blend of period charm and generous light-filled living spaces. A flexible floorplan features three spacious bedrooms all with built in robes, and an optional fourth bedroom or study fully equipped with bespoke cabinetry and a desk, ready to use as a convenient home office. Elegant cathedral ceilings grace the open plan living room, where a Miele and Smeg appointed kitchen and stylish stone island can be found, creating a practical and ambient setting for entertaining friends and family. High ceilings with period roses and sash windows are hallmarks of a bygone era and an abundance of natural light and timber floors create a contemporary flow throughout. French doors open to a sunny rear deck, nestled within leafy borders. Modern practicalities include ducted heating, air conditioning, attic storage, a bright central bathroom and a separate laundry. Imagine life in one of Melbourne's most prized pockets, where so much is easily accessed on foot, moments from Hawksburn Village and High Street's thriving café and restaurant culture and excellent transport links.
