Architectural Family Oasis with District Views Custom built by the current owners to take full advantage of the sun soaked north facing position and spectacular natural bush views, this contemporary home celebrates family living with a fusion of bespoke design and high-end functionality. Beautifully crafted interiors reveal the perfect blend of colour, texture and light with an organic palette of materials and high raked ceilings. Designed to invite the indoors in, the sunlit living space offers seamless flow to a private entertainer's haven with a saltwater pool and lower level retreat, guest accommodation or office. It's nestled in a quiet cul-de-sac, 1km to Collaroy Plateau shops or Wheeler Heights Public School plus only 500m to James Wheeler Reserve and the start of a choice of lakeside trails.- Optimal north facing position bathes the interiors in sunshine- Beautiful by day and transforms into a magical outdoor oasis by night- Free-flowing living/dining area with natural fireplace flows outdoors- Streamlined stone finished kitchen with stainless steel appliances- Three upstairs bedrooms, all orientated to capture the views- Master with walk-in and chic ensuite with views to Narrabeen Lake- Media room/lounge room with custom shelving study area- Chic bathrooms with underfloor heating, large functional laundry- Entertainers' deck, child-friendly level lawn, in-ground pool- Separate teen/guest retreat with bathroom, home office, storage- Internal access to a lock-up garage with workbench, rain water tank
