Welcome to the sale of the Renmark Scouts Hall, a cherished community landmark that first opened its doors back in 1961 by Henry Rymill, Chief Scout Commissioner for South Australia. The location of this property is outstanding, with the Town Centre, Schools, Child Care Centres, Medical facilities and all amenities right at your fingertips! This remarkable building has served as a home to countless scouting activities, community events, and memories over the years. Its walls hold stories of adventure, personal growth, and the building of friendships that have lasted a lifetime. With its well-equipped kitchen and versatile meeting spaces, the possibilities for hosting a wide range of events are endless. From community gatherings to workshops, and art exhibitions to educational programs, the Scout Hall can continue to play a vital role in our community's future. Key Features Include: • Zoned Neighbourhood (Residential) • Dual street access • Generous allotment size approx 844m² • Over 30 metres frontage to Thurk & Cowra Streets • Split system air-conditioning • Multiple office & storage space • Large garage/workshop area It is now time for the Scout Hall's next chapter and new owner to envision the endless possibilities on offer!
