

100 Wallumatta Road, Newport, NSW 2106

Sold House

Saturday, 13 April 2024

100 Wallumatta Road, Newport, NSW 2106

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Greg Griffin
0299189933

Alexander Schreiber
0299189933

Contact agent

A great location with an affordable price point – this home is one of the best entry level offerings to come to market in years. Tucked above the waterfront and just moments from the centre of Newport, the home is loaded with opportunity for the right buyer; the dual level layout has a solid, double brick base and the bones of a mid-century classic with high raked ceilings and extensive glazing throughout. Absolutely livable as is, it can be rejuvenated over time with a fresh, creative eye and a bit of tradie expertise – it's got all the potential to be an outstanding family home for years to come. - Fantastic opportunity for renovators, tradies and first time buyers- Main level offers integrated living/dining with high raked ceilings- 70s kitchen w/timber cabinetry offers scope for modern updates- Second living area on ground floor between two double bedrooms- Front deck with Pittwater views + generous bricked terrace in back- Two double bedrooms + study on main floor; bathrooms on each level- Air con, garage, carport; three minute drive to the centre of NewportDisclaimer: Whilst all care has been taken to ensure accuracy in the preparation of the particulars herein, no warranty can be given, and interested parties must rely on their own enquiries.