Welcome to the Eastend apartment, a spacious and light-filled corner unit discreetly nestled behind the serene ambiance of Wesley Church. This elegant abode boasts a harmonious blend of tranquillity and accessibility, offering residents easy access to Melbourne's bustling shopping precincts. Perfectly positioned within the thriving Wesley Church precinct, this apartment enjoys proximity to newly developed retail and office spaces. Moreover, it's just a leisurely stroll away from Chinatown and the vibrant QV shopping area, ensuring effortless access to a wide array of dining and shopping experiences. Perched on the corner of the 10th floor, this exceptional two-bedroom apartment presents a rare opportunity in the heart of the CBD. Spanning an impressive 89 square meters, it provides ample living space. The full-sized kitchen, complete with a dishwasher, caters to both convenience and culinary aspirations. Inside, a spacious dining and lounge area beckons, offering an inviting space for relaxation and entertainment. The apartment features two beautifully appointed bedrooms, each thoughtfully located for privacy and comfort. The master bedroom boasts an ensuite and connects to a balcony, providing a breath of fresh air and an ideal spot for outdoor enjoyment. For added convenience, a shared bathroom is also included. Residents of this building enjoy access to a range of amenities, including a ground-floor swimming pool and gym. These facilities offer opportunities for both recreation and fitness. Overall, the Eastend apartment promises a comfortable and convenient urban living experience in a highly sought-after CBD location. Whether you're a family seeking space or a downsizer looking for accessibility, this apartment beckons with its access to amenities and nearby attractions."
