An incredible oasis away from the world outside, this stylishly appointed 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom 'Noir' apartment really is the epitome of low maintenance luxury. Moments to vibrant Chapel Street, this modern apartment is finished to the highest of standards and is enhanced by expanses of floor-to-ceiling glass as well as chic pale oak flooring which flows seamlessly through the residence's social areas. Taking in spectacular views across the treetops to Melbourne's ever-changing city skyline, the open plan living/dining zone opens to a broad balcony for easy indoor-outdoor enjoyment. The sleek designer kitchen is a space that has been planned to precision; here prestige Bosch appliances and lavish stone finishes are among the standout inclusions. Flaunting house-sized proportions, the apartment has three generous bedrooms – all with built-in robes – and two bathrooms, including the master with ensuite. Requisite practicalities include a laundry with ample storage, heating/cooling and video intercom entry. Capping off an exceptional package is the inclusion of two parking spaces and a handy storage cage. This fabulous location is an easy walk to everything – trams, trains, parks and the Prahran Market are just a few of the nearby amenities ensuring a lifestyle of pure ease and convenience.
